

Student Assistant at Department of Management, Center of Accounting

Would you like to work with a supportive and productive research team in accounting? Do you want to contribute to current research in management accounting on understanding organizational wrongdoing? Then you might be our new student assistant!

The Department of Management is looking for a student assistant from February 1, 2026, until January 31, 2027 to assist with administrative and practical tasks.

Your tasks:

Your tasks will involve assistance to our research team, especially in helping us to organize literature, gather, clean, and organize data, and support us in implementing experimental studies.

We expect that you:

- Are thorough and able to work independently and in a disciplined manner
- Can communicate both in writing and orally in English; Danish is appreciated but not mandatory
- Very good analytical thinking skills

In return, we offer:

- An exciting student job that will develop you both professionally and personally
- A large network of colleagues with diverse national and academic backgrounds
- Insight into an engaging and productive research environment
